Dahlicious Day

It was fabulous to walk into school today and see so many umpalumpas, Charlies, Matildas and Fantastic Mr Foxes to name but a few. Thank you for making the effort however great or small. The children not only have fun but it brings to life some of the fabulous children's books that Roald Dahl wrote and makes the children even more enthusiastic to hear the stories and pick up a book to discover the delights of reading.

Messy Church

Thank you to the 'messy church' group who came in to school with Reverend Iddon (parent and governor). They worked on a craft afternoon, on the theme of Harvest, with Penguins Class. The children loved the activities and it was lovely to have the message that they had been excellently behaved. The helpers were particularly impressed with the way that the children helped each other if they had finished their own work. Well done Penguins!
