Polite Reminders

Sickness:

Please remember that children should not return to school for 48 hours after they have had an episode of sickness. There may be some cases where we can make an exception to the rule so do check with us if you are not sure.

Peanuts:

Please make sure that no food or food packaging such as Crunchy Nut Cornflake boxes containing peanuts is sent to school. We do have children with allergies who need to avoid all contact. Thank you.

Teaspoons:

(I like this one!) Apparently the kitchen's supply of teaspoons has dwindled to almost nothing. We believe it is from children with packed lunches who borrow a teaspoon to eat a yoghurt type desert then accidentally take the teaspoons home. Please pack any utensils needed to eat the food you have packed. We should probably hold a teaspoon amnesty for any you may have mysteriously discovered at home!

Prevent

The part of the government's anti-extremism and radicalisation strategy known as 'Prevent' has a new website with information for schools but also for parents. It makes for an interesting read and is well worth a look at the following address:
